

Angels Grab Narrow Lead Over Field in Tight Colt League Race

The Giants beat the Braves, 4-0, in Torrance Colt League play, June 18.

Bill Valles started for the Braves, but his control was off. After three innings, he had allowed the Giants five hits and three runs. He was relieved in the fourth by Wayne Wood. It just wasn't the Braves' day. Tommy Tomson went all the way for the Giants, shutting them out with only two hits while his team mates collected seven hits and four runs.

On June 20 the Angels beat the then league leading Tigers, 9-5. Jon Hadley started for the Angels, but couldn't finish the first inning, and the Tigers jumped off to a 4-run lead. He was relieved in the first by Steve Kealey, who put out the fire, and while striking out 11, allowed only three hits the rest of the way.

Mike Tuffey started for the Tigers, but the power of the Angels started to tell. They tied the game in the 5th. Bob Sharpe came on in the sixth. In the sixth with the bases loaded, Jon Hadley unloaded a home run to win the game.

Sunday, June 23, in the first game of a double-header the Giants took on the Tigers. Bob Wells hurled for the Giants. The Tigers just couldn't get started. Wells scattered four hits and the Tigers could only get one run. The Giants, led by Richard White, who got 3 for 4, picked up 11 hits from Paul Romero. The 7-1 loss pushed the Tigers out of a tie for first place.

In the second game the league-leading Angels took on the Braves. Jon Hadley hurled for the Angels, striking out 11, walking five and allowing six hits.

The Angeles collected six hits from Don Disrud and Ed Wheels, but because of so many errors and wildness, the Angels scored 11 runs. Tom Buffington of the Braves slammed a home run in the fifth with one man aboard. Final score: Angels, 11; Braves, 5.

Dodgers' Dave Reid Hurls LL No-Hitter Against Cubs

Dodger Dave Reid hurled a no-hitter against the Cubs, but to no avail as walks, wild pitches and five errors brought in seven runs. Credited with RBI's for the Dodgers are Jim Cunningham and Dickie Durkee. Final score: Dodgers, 4, Cubs, 7, in Torrance National Little League Minor play.

The second no-hitter of the week was thrown for the giants by pitcher Don Cook. Don Cook struck out 12 batters, only to lose to the Phillies in a 3-1 game.

The Giants came back swinging in their next game against the Cardinals with a final score of 9-8, keeping the Giants in the league lead by two games.

The only two hits against Yankee pitcher Dennis Kalenberger were to Phillie 9-year-old shortstop Mike Godfrey in the 5th inning and Billy Mullen in the 6th. Yankees second baseman is credited with 2 RBI's. Final score Phillies, 1; Yankees, 11.

The Dodgers held an easy lead over the Braves and in spite of Duane Kleinehan's home run in the 6th inning, took the victory 6-5.

Cardinal pitcher Doug Holder and Larry Affentranger combined their mound efforts in a no-hitter over the Cubs. Credited with FIREWORKS YET!—Baldwin Park's Mike Schmadler takes spectacular flip in roaring big car in kind of action to be seen Thursday night, July Fourth, in 50-lap California Racing Assn. speedfest, which will also stage a complete fireworks show in addition to the races. Incidentally, Schmadler was unhurt in the accident. The big cars return to regular Wednesday night action July 10.

Motorboat Regatta Slated

Arrangements for the 15th running of the July 4 all-in-board motorboat sweepstakes on Long Beach Marine Stadium were completed today between the West Long Beach Lions Club, sponsors and Southern California Speedboat Club, which will conduct the racing.

For his third year, Lowell W. Johnson was named general chairman.

Bob Ellis of Compton, stellar hydroplane racer and drag-boat star, is 1963 commodore of the SCSC, America's largest inboard racing organization and world known as "the club of champions."

An added youth group, the Boy Scouts and Sea Scouts, will benefit from proceeds of the regatta at Long Beach Marine Stadium.

Johnson said the West Long Beach Lions Club, sponsors of the Independence Day speedboat classic, have pledged $1,000 for each of three years, to the scouts.
